

University of
Salford
MANCHESTER

2018 Podiatry education conference

Thursday March 22nd 2018, part of the 2018 ENPODHE conference.
Mary Seacole Building, University of Salford, UK.

Conference Theme – Moving forward together.

Welcome - Dr Vicky Halliwell, Dean of School Health Sciences

- UK Podiatry perspective Chair, Veronica Newton
- European Podiatry perspective ENPODHE working groups
- Co-Designing curriculum courses for the future apprenticeship, mentoring, and future models
Veronica Newton, University of Salford
- Development of Podiatry Career spine and MSK framework
Emma Cowley, University of Plymouth

Debate: Moving forward together – what is our direction of travel?

- Innovative teaching methods for Podiatry
Dr Sarah Curran, Cardiff Metropolitan University

Debate: Innovative teaching - how do we move from passive learning to active reconstruction of knowledge

- Using digital technology in teaching and learning and assessment

Debate: What are the barriers and incentives to engaging with digital technology?

Led by Amina Helal Quality Enhancement Office

- Authentic assessment in Podiatry

Debate: Developing assessment tasks that reflect complex professional challenges.

Led by Sean Walton Quality Enhancement Office

- Research into teaching plenary session;
Biomechanics and orthoses practice, paediatrics and POMS.

4.30pm. Close of conference.

REGISTER HERE

For details of the full ENPODHE conference click here